A certain softness in her eyes
fascinates me
more than I ever thought it would
(a certain softness)
more than I ever thought it could
A certain softness in her eyes
got me hooked, got me hooked

A kind of sadness in her smile
captivates me
Surer than anything that's sure (a kind of sadness) surer than anything before
A kind of sadness in her smile
got me hooked x 3

If I could even find the words to tell her I wouldn't want to anyway
'cause that could only break the spell and you know very well I couldn't betray her

A touch of wildness
in her style
haunts my memory
more than I ever thought it would
(a touch of wildness)
more than I ever thought it could
A touch of wildness
in her style
got me hooked x 3

A certain softness in her eyes
fascinates me
(a certain softness)
more than I ever thought it could
A certain softness in her eyes
