"Hotel in Benidorm"

Well, the traffic agent told me that everything was taken care of,
But here am I, got the kids got the wife, nowhere to stay tonight.

Yeah, the hotel in Benidorm, still be building it.
Won't be finished soon, won't be finished soon.
Yeah, the hotel in Benidorm, still buildin', buildin',
buildin'

We go to the beach and we go for a swim,
But sooner or later yea,
We're gonna need to lay our poor burden down,

The hotel in Benidorm still isn't finished,
I guess we gonna just have to hang around.
