You wanna give your love away
And end up giving nothing
I'm not surprised
That your black eyes are gazing

You say that love is everything
And what we need the most of
I wish you knew
That's just how true my love was

No words for my love

Your burning love, sweet burning love
It's deep inside, you mustn't hide

Your burning love, sweet burning love
Your burning love

You wanna turn your head away
And someone's thinking of you
I wish you'd see, it's only me
I love you

No words for my love
