"Sing The Changes"

Let the song play, in the morning.
Feel the fire, feel the thunder.
Every Ladder, needs a heaven.
Colored pencils, draw the picture.
Sing the changes, as you're sleeping.
Feel the fire, feel the thunder.
Sing the changes, calling over.
Feel the fire, feel the thunder.

Like a song playing, in the morning.
Feel the fire, feel the thunder.
Every ladder, needs a heaven.
Colored pencils, draw the picture.
Sing your praises, as you're sleeping.
Sing the changes, any wonder.
Feel the senses, shine like wonder.
Sing your praises, as you're sleeping.

Sing the changes, as you're sleeping.
Feel the fire, feel the thunder.
Sing the changes, calling over.
Feel the fire, feel the thunder.
Sing your praises, as you're sleeping.
Feel the fire, feel the thunder.
Sing the changes, calling over.
Everybody's senses shine like wonder!

Sing your praises, as you're sleeping.
Feel the fire, feel the thunder.
Sing the changes, calling over.
Everybody's senses shine like wonder!
