Olds Mo William where you goin?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah. I'm going over to New York.
Olds Mo William when you comin back?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah. Early in the morning.
Olds Mo William, what you gonna do?
I'm gonna rock and roll if I can, if I can.
He's gonna rock and roll if he can, if he can.

Olds Mo William was a born on Monday,
Never moved a leg till early on Friday,
Saturday Night, he heard a rock and roll band,
I'm gonna rock and roll if I can, if I can,
He's gonna rock and roll if he can, if he can.

Olds Mo William is a terrible mess,
All the time a rockin and it never, never rest,
All the time, women hangin on to his arm,
He gets them and he keeps them with all of his charm,
Olds Mo William, what you gonna do?
I'm gonna rock and roll if I can, if I can,
He's gonna rock and roll if he can, if he can.

(Saxophone solo) yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
(Saxophone solo)

Olds Mo William walkin to the store,
Just to buy, pair of shoes that he wears out on the floor,
If he wears them out a rockin, he will never, never care,
Because he knows by tomorrow, he'll buy another pair,
Olds Mo William, what you gonna do?
I'm gonna rock and roll if I can, if I can,
He's gonna rock and roll if he can, if he can.

Olds Mo William where you goin?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah. I'm going over the hill,
Olds Mo William when you comin back?
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah. Early in the morning,
Olds Mo William, what you gonna do?
I'm gonna rock and roll if I can, if I can,
He's gonna rock and roll if he can, if he can.

I'm gonna rock and roll if I can, if I can,
(Fade) And I think I can, I think I can.
