I'm leaving this morning
Ooh, I can't say
If I'll be back someday
Or if I'll be back at all

My suitcase by the window
That must be my heartache
Knocking on the door
Put love back in my pocket
That's my dreams
Lying on the floor
My hopes and my dreams
Lying on the floor

Then from somewhere above me
A voice begins to sing
Come to see me in my dreams
Tell me love is all I need

Come to see me in my loneliness

Tell me love is all I need

(Solo)
Well now, I'm standing
By the station
And I'm looking all around
I don't see no smiling faces
I don't hear no happy sounds
No, no I don't hear
No happy sounds
'Til from somewhere above me
A voice begins to sing

Come to see me in my dreams
Tell me love is all I need
Come to see me in my loneliness
Tell me love is all I need.
