[Hook]

If time dont fear the reaper, neither do the sun nor the wind and the rain then maybe things will be as they were except after death there will be no pain, for a change still I wonder why, if we can laugh and cry get high and pass the lie, why do we have to die? because there's two sides to life the dark and light pray that your god dont stop your heart tonight

Since I was a toddler I'd ask my father if were all gonna die why do we bother trying to go farther than the last martyr exploring more of the earth than man has chartered? it gets harder everyday just for starters the greedy don't barter they just steal and starve ya' thank god I, caught this like Gary Carter or Tim McCarver and learned I gotta think smarter we oughta, take advantage of the part a' the refined design we find we're offered cause time bends like the bow of an archer my mind tends to be grim like Clive Barker cause when your caught in the web like Peter Parker you'll see the mark of the reaper is even darker than the heart of a black -hole that's unchartered swallowing bright light rays the sun started

It's inevitable that death will get you whether a sick chick with AIDS sex you or a clip spit and weapons wet you if it can happen to best friends and Seanie's gone I wonder will tomorrow be the day that mommies gone my greatest dream is she win her fight with the cancer taking each day by day in life is the answer they told her she had only few months to live but she didn't give up, a few years later here she is still alive and it gives me the illest vibe loved gramps still he died I'm itching to kill a guy why, so many pussies frontin', they trying to push my buttons faggots that's good for nothing always wanna prove there something your mother had to carry you for nine months but I could bury you by squeezing a nine once so be sure to the core before you take a life cause someone had to give birth, nurture and make a life wake up to feed and love a screaming baby late at night so take my advice, two wrongs don't make a right I've danced with the devil by the moonlight while death swept fingers on the harp and played a tune like

I don't fear the reaper, neither do the sun nor the wind or the rain but death fucks with your soul like ether you come to take my life I'll put a slug in your brain...
