"I Will"

I pray under the candle
And beg you to forgive
For all the things I've done and said
And all the things
I will
I sleep under the candle
Until the summer comes
And we will shed another skin
And all the days
I will
I breath inside your breath
And hope you'll understand
Now as my heart fills up with light
And all the love
I will
I strike the bell of wishing
And fall into the deep
And find you there and waiting
And all the times
I will
You drive me to the station
And let me go again
With a candle in my heart

And music in my head
But as a river changes

And never is the same

I will always be returning

To your

Single flame
