"Little Heads"

I've got a picture of you

You maybe 21, maybe 22

With a baby on your back

Your very first one

What did it feel like then?

Not knowing how it would end
And here you are again

Now you have more or less 3 of them

Sitting in a row

Like 3 little eskimos

Smiling at their dad

Not knowing that they've been had
And today is mother's day

And now you have 5 and 3 call to say

They miss you now you've gone

But don't cry because you feel

You've done something wrong

It just happened you said

I love their little heads

I love their little heads
