I'm waiting at the door like so many times before
This time, I'll make it right
I know I need to be a different kind of me
This time, I just might Have a little strength to show you
The reason why I'm here tonight

Here I am. This is the moment
Here I am. Feel the love is waiting
From now, the start of something new
My life is not complete when I'm standing
Standing close to you

I woke up in a dream. There's someone in between
This time, I got it right
They are still in front of you
Then I realised that my wish had just come through
This time I want my fight
This feeling may not last forever
So now I'll brace this magic now

Here I am. This is the moment
Here I am. Feel the love is waiting
From now, the start of something new
My life is not complete when I'm standing
Standing close to you

I doubted my emotions. I can pull this off and make it all away
But now I know I am stronger. And I've finally feel that I am here to stay

Here I am. This is the moment
Here I am. Feel the love is waiting
From now, the start of something new
My life is not complete when I am standing
Standing close to you
