Yellow strands mingle into red
Just in warm air blows, down upon her soft bed
She licks my face the feeling spreads

I'm up in Suzes' room, flowers blooming full I'm up in Suzes' room, where life goes so soon

She's anything that you can call free
She's everything that she wants to be
She has everything that you could want to see

I'm up in Suzes' room, flowers bloom in full
I'm up in Suzes' room, where time goes so soon

Soon, against the moon a big sky paints, but she calls the tunes
She's cool that way, how I wish it could stay forever that way

No one moves, no one can
Luck rolls it's coins, they land where they stand
To make us everything that you never planned

I'm up in Suzes' room, people blooming full
Yes yes, in Suzes' room, where life goes so soon

Suzes' room
Up in Suzes' room
Up in Suzes' room
Up in Suzes' room
