You who brings joy
Into my world
Makes me swirl
Of such love

And all you ask
In return
Is to be loved
And love you I must

Compelled by God
To invisible force

I just want so much
To be here for you
You, my darling who
Brings so much joy

Every laugh has an echo
Every movement a feat
I humble in your complexion
So perfect, so complete

You who brings joy
Into the world

In your eyes lie a heaven
In your voice sweet caress
It is you who takes over
Whose gentle arms I rest

You who brings joy
Into the world
Makes me swirl
Of such love
Such love
