Eagle's calling and he's calling your name
Tides are turning, bringing winds of change
Why do I feel this way?
The promise of a new day

The promise
Promise of a new day

As through time, the earth moves under my feet
One step closer to make love complete
What has the final say?
The promise of a new day

The promise
Promise of a new day
The promise
Promise of a new day

The promise
Promise of a new day
The promise

And so time over time
What will change the world?
No one knows
So the only promise
Is a day to live, to give
And share with one another

See the wisdom from mistakes in our past
Hear the younger generation ask
Why do I feel this way?
The promise of a new day

The promise
Promise of a new day
The promise
Promise of a new day

The promise
Promise of a new day
The promise

Promise of a new day

The promise
Promise of a new day
The promise
Promise of a new day

So time over time
What will change the world?
No one knows
So the only promise
Is a day to live, to give
And share with one another

Eagle's calling and he's calling your name
Tides are turning, bringing winds of change
Why do I feel this way?

The promise
Promise of a new day

As through time, the earth moves under my feet
One step closer to make love complete
What has the final say?

The promise
Promise of a new day
The promise
Promise of a new day

The promise
Promise of a new day
The promise
Promise of a new day

See the wisdom from mistakes in our past
Hear the younger generation ask
What has the final say?

The promise
Promise of a new day

Eagle's calling and he's calling your name
Tides are turning, bringing winds of change
Why do I feel this way?
The promise of a new day

The promise

Promise of a new day
The promise
Promise of a new day

The promise
Promise of a new day
The promise
Promise of a new day

The promise
Promise of a new day
The promise
Promise of a new day
