Have you heard the latest re-invention in the street?
Take me on a journey with the rhythm in my feet
Takes me to the left and it takes me to the right
Posing as a savior if you fall across the night

Hey, I know
There's some places that you'd like to go
Hey, that's why
You take out there and dance in time
Blink and you'll miss a revolution

Baby, baby, can't you see?
Oh, take it from me
Oh, take it from me
We're on the path to eternity
Oh, take it from me
Oh, take it from me

Oh, the fashion prophets, they will tell you what to do
Take this single formula and guard it's strength in you

Hey, I know
There's some places that you'd like to go
Hey, that's why
You take out there and dance in time
Blink and you'll miss a revolution

Baby, baby, can't you see?
Oh, take it from me
Oh, take it from me
We're on the path to eternity
Oh, take it from me
Oh, take it from me

Turn it up and burn it down
Oh, take it from me
Oh, take it from me
Then spread the ashes over my old town
