What's that you see?
There's all these satellites, satellites, satellites
Orbiting you and me
Just one glimpse can change a life, change a life,
change a life
And you can see
Through all these satellites, satellites, satellites
Orbiting you and me
One glimpse change a life, change a life, change a life,
change it

I get so haunted
That I fall in your dreams tonight
I get so haunted
That I misunderstood tonight

What's that you see?
There's all the satellites, satellites, satellites
Haunting you and me
Just one glimpse can change a life, change a life,
change a life
And you can see
Through all these satellites, satellites, satellites
Haunting you and me
One glimpse change a life, change a life, change a life,
change it

I get so haunted
That I fall in your dreams tonight
I get so haunted
That I misunderstood tonight x2

This is real
This is what you've searched out
And you wouldn't believe
You could never see it's true

You can leave
And you could go out
Search out
Harbor daze
Harbor daze

In a harbor daze
In a harbor daze
