Well, here in my heart
There's a story untold
Of a girl who left me standing
Standing in the cold

And since she's been away
I've never had a happy day

I hope and I pray
That she'll hear my plea
And maybe someday
She'll come back to me

For here in my heart
There's a story untold

For all you've said and done
You said we'd be as one
But, darling
I found I was wrong

But what did you do
Right from the start
You made of fool of me
And then you broke my heart

Well, I hope and I pray
That she'll hear my plea
And maybe someday
She'll come back to me

For here in my heart
There's a story untold

A story, story untold
