Doo do do do dum..

One of them days hear me when I say
You were acting ridiculous just in front of me
I met a good old friend to bad he was a guy
Didn't even had a chance to say goodbye
Before you made a scene
Started to yell at me
For no reason to be angry at me

I am letting you go
I did nothing wrong
Setting you free
It was not my bad at all

Just letting you go
I did nothing wrong
Take care of your heart
It was not my bad at all

I am letting you go
I did nothing wrong
Setting you free
It was not my bad at all

Just letting you go
I did nothing wrong

You're the one who makes all the rules
Chatting with my friends
Telling me, girl you're the fool
And, I should give a call in him
Stop saying that I still love him
He knows
What he does
But he knows
How to get me back

I am letting you go
I did nothing wrong
Setting you free
It was not my bad at all

Just letting you go
I did nothing wrong
Take care of your heart
It was not my bad at all

I am letting you go
I did nothing wrong
Setting you free
It was not my bad at all

Just letting you go
I did nothing wrong
Take care of your heart

Just a moment, just a moment, just a moment
The guidance could not be to, to be together
So what am I supposed to do
Baby you're killing me thrilling me
Can't you see I'm stuck
Hey girls you know what I mean
But hey baby
That just takes my feel..
I'm crying out loud see how this makes me feel

I am letting you go
I did nothing wrong
Setting you free

Just letting you go
I did nothing wrong
Take care of your heart
It was not my bad at all

I am letting you go
I did nothing wrong
Setting you free

Just letting you go
I did nothing wrong
Take care of your heart
