well you came and said your goodbyes and I'm sitting here thinking with a smile I'm dying inside but I know I'll be just fine I saw love not lies but I could be mistaken now you've gone and I dry my eyes and I'm here for the taking tonight feel the need for somebody tonight I could love you forever tonight

ch) 'cause you're just the thing that I need just to fill the space he left here just give me all the love that I need for a night that's enough for a broken heart

I'm surrounded by faces and smiles is it you who I'm seeking tonight maybe now or maybe a while but I'll know it when it's right I see love in your eyes
but I could be mistaken I see love in your smile is it you who I'll be taking tonight feel the need for somebody tonight

time will pass and change the way I feel take away the scars and begin to heal well I'm waiting I'm waiting you're the one in my hour of need it's not forever it's all about speed well I'll take it I'll fake it for real
