It's 8:03 and you woke up away from me
Tomorrow yet another worry
It's 8:15 and already you livin in that stressativity
So soon your mind is blanking
Mind is spinning in complex without me
So give me your coffee give me your cream
Give me your stressin everything
It's so easy to be blind by animosity Relax your eyes and sing free to be Oh child won't you sing to me)
(And if you think your life is under control and if you think you're livin under control
Cuz only the fool leaneth on his own
And so I sing to you with all my soul
(Free to be without worry no more worry
Yes I'm free to be without worry
No more worry)
(123 a.m. and the house is burning down
4 a.m. the I AM grain of sand I am
You work me not to worry yeah You woke me up not to worry
But what should I drink
What should I wear
what should I eat
Where should I sleep
Who gives me everything
He gives me everything
So burn house burn down
Joshua Joshua's house burned down)
(And you think your life is under control
And if you think your life is under control
And if you think your living under control
Cuz only the fool leanth on his own
And so I sing to you with all my soul)
(Free to be without worry
No more worry...
I need Your release to be in me
I need your beat to be my release
You gave me that sea to remind me
Your peace Jehovah won't You draw near me
