chorus: Come on, come on just relax
Whoa, whoa take a breath
Come on, come on it's okay
You can forget yesterday (2x)
Man and our philosophies
Man and our psychologies
Seem to throw away
Need to throw away
Everything gets in the way
We're forced to give an apology
And I can't seem to get it out of my head (my head)
I can feel the tension rising (think think think) (3x) high
CHORUS (2x)
Yesterday is burned away
You'll never ever earn your way
You'll never understand
You'll never understand today
What's gone is gone, what's done is done
We have to divide to become one
I can't believe the things I said yeah
I can feel the tension rising (think think think) (3x) high
CHORUS (2 x)
Bobby's interlude: My days go by slow they're unforgettable (2x)
You're gonna break down today
Take a breath for tomorrow may not make its way to you
So watch the heart in you
My heart can't help but start
To rot, to rot, rot at an early age
As I think too much and lose the peace in all my rage
I can feel the tension rising (think think think) (3x) high
Yesterday's a memory (whoa)
So throw it all away (whoa)
You can forget about yesterday (whoa)
So throw it all away (2x)
CHORUS
