"Don't Look Back"

I never knew what it meant to me
'Til someone just took the best of me
If it's some kind of conspiracy
Then no one gets to the rest of me

I'm turning over leaves, I'm holding up my head
I'm healing over hurt and learning to forget

I said, "Don't look back, let it fade and let it go
Don't look back, let it fade and let it go"

You make your way in a crazy world
Get all mixed up by a crazy girl
When all you want is some honesty
But then all she gives you is sympathy

I'm opening new new doors, I'm clearing out the shelf
I'm loosening away my act and laughing to myself

I said, "Don't look back, let it fade and let it go
Don't look back, let it fade and let it go"

Don't be afraid of the choices you've made
Try not to give any quarter, there's no more to say
I'm walking away and I'll never look back

I said, "Don't look back, let it fade and let it go
Don't look back, let it fade and let it go"
I said, "Don't look back, let it fade and let it go
Don't look back"

Let it go, let it go
