(distant scream)

there's a girl on a ledge, who's got nowhere to turn because all the love that she had was just wood that she burned

now her life is on fire, it's no one's concern she can blame the world...or pray til dawn but only love...can breakerfall

breakerfall

yeah only love can breakerfall... fall it's like she's lost the invitation to the party on earth and she's standing outside hating everyone here yeah she's her own disease, crying to her doll

but only love...can breakerfall

breakerfall

only love can breakerfall yeah...

can breakerfall

ooh yeah only love can breakerfall...

love, love, can breakerfall, fall...

love, ooh can breakerfall...

only love can breaker..
