there's a girl on a ledge, who's got nowhere to turn because all the love that she had was just wood that she burned
now her life is on fire, it's no one's concern she can blame the world...or pray til dawn but only love...can breakerfall breakerfall
yeah only love can breakerfall...fall it's like she's lost the invitation to the party on earth and she's standing outside hating everyone here yeah she's her own disease, crying to her doll

breakerfall
only love can breakerfall yeah...
fall, breakerfall, love oh oh.. can breakerfall ooh yeah only love can breakerfall... love, love, can breakerfall, fall... love, ooh can breakerfall... only love can breaker..
