Why deny
All the troubles when combined with the missing links
It don't feel like
Home now,...

The you're gone
All the troubles
Suddenly explained infinitum
You're always wishing and Never here at home.

You
All the dreams we shared and Lights we turned on
But the house is getting dark

Ans I don't want to know your past
But together share the dawn
And I won't need

Nothing else
Cause when we're dead
We would've had it all

And died
I would've fallen from the sky
Till you
Parachutes have opened now

Heaven knows if there's a ceiling

Come so low with the kneeling
Please know that I got

All the feelings I'm needing Before my light goes out
As the doors are closing now

And far away will be my home
And to grasp this, I don't know

And I don't need

Further back and forth, A wave will break on me today
And love,... wish the world could go again with love
One can't seem to have enough
And war,... break the sky and tell me what it's for I'll travel there on my own
And love,... what a different life
Had I not found this love with you
