See the stars unmade
Make way for the memories remain
And ignore the good ones
Watch it burn tonight
The world is never big enough for you
And I'm dying not to see you

You have a place in me, you always do
Don't think to go back to the alley
You know it's true
You have a place in me, you always do
Don't think to go back to the alley
You know it's true but not tonight

The wounds I'm healing from your goodbyes
It's the reason I'm still here tonight
Despise, abhorrence, and detestation
In conclusion is the reason to forget 2002

You have a place in me, you always do
Don't think to go back to the alley
You know it's true
You have a place in me, you always do
Don't think to go back to the alley
You know it's true

You just adding 'I' in 'misery' and 'pain' to me
Cus letting go is so much easier than moving on
