Well I'll wait until you listen
Every words I have to say
Noticing how bad I've been this week
Now you're lying on the table
With everything I've said to you
So let's start over

So you and I both know

Stay with me please til at least forever
You're my current obsession
My favorite position

You're inner light
Do something bright
A glory without it's victory
Everyword I've said to you
Were the words that I mean the most
I'll never let you go
Oh, can we stay like this forever?
