Let's take a walk tonight
We're gonna talk this out
The moon is holding up my alibis

So what if you're with him tonight?
So what if I can't be there?
You were never really with me anyway

And when it's time to start all over
(I'll send a postcard when I get there)
Anywhere (When I get there)
Any where, far from you

Oneday I will find you
Even when you're not around
Don't say we won't last any longer
Or you will find someone better
It's you that I'm waiting for so I'll wait for you
Take notes that we'll still have each other
We'll drive away

Let us take one last shot
Before I break your heart
The moon is down so no more alibis

So what if you're with him tonight?
So what if I can't be there?
You were never really with me anyway

And when it's time to start all over
(I'll send a postcard when I get there)
Anywhere (When I get there)
Any where, far from you

Oneday I will find you
Even when you're not around
Don't say we won't last any longer
Or you will find someone better
It's you that I'm waiting for so I'll wait for you
Take notes that we'll still have each other
We'll drive away

Don't bother to explain it
I don't care anymore
You know what's fun is fun
I know what's done is done
Don't let the story end this way
So let's forget it
Let's pretend it

Oneday I will find you
Even when you're not around
Don't say we won't last any longer
Or you will find someone better
It's you that I'm waiting for so I'll wait for you
Take notes that we'll still have each other
We'll drive away

I can't let you go if you keep holding my hand
I can't let you go if you keep holding my hand
