Turn out the light
Sleep won't come
I think about what's going on

Lying so close, so alone
Please turn to me
I'm almost gone

Hold On
I feel our love is changing
Hold on
Please don't let me disappear
Hold on
There's time to rearrange things
Hold on
I'm not me without you here

Put out your hand
Touch desire
Where there's a spark
Could be a fire
Open your heart
And let me see
If there is still love in you for me

Hold On
I feel our love is changing
Hold On
Please don't let me disappear
Hold On
There's time to rearrange things
I'm not me without you here
