When did you
Stop loving me?
Did it happen kinda slow
Or suddenly?
Our love was strong
And it's hard to forget
It's over for you, but I'm not through
Loving you yet

Take your coat off
And sit awhile
Surely I can do something to make you smile
I want you to stay, but you'll go I guess
It's over for you, but I'm not through
Loving you yet

I've got my dreams
Of a sweet loving man
Standing by me
'cause he understands
The love of a good woman, is so hard to find
I thought we had something
But I was so blind

When did you
Stop loving me?
Did it happen kinda slow
Or suddenly?
Our love was strong
It's kinda hard to forget
It's over for you, but I'm not through
Loving you yet
It's over for you, but I'm not through
Loving you yet
