Sometimes like a river
You touch my life
I can feel you flowing down into my soul
Sometimes like a rainbow
You brush my dreams
You illuminate my thoughts and make them whole

Loving you
Is the sweetest thing I know
Loving you
Is the sweetest thing I know

If you ever leave me baby
You know you've given me enough to live on
Any place I go

Sometimes like a mountain
Love seems too tall
And though I'm climbing, I'm not sure of where I'm going
Sometimes like a new wind
You touch my hand
And I can feel the sudden pleasure in not knowing

Loving you
Is the sweetest thing I know
Loving you
Is the sweetest thing I know

If you ever leave me baby
You know you've given me enough to live on
Any place I go

Loving you
Is the sweetest thing I know
Loving you
Is the sweetest thing I know
If you ever leave me baby
You know you've given me enough to live on
Any place I go
