"When the Wild Life Betrays Me"

And a gold wedding band
Wonder where do I stand?

When the wild life betrays me
And I'm too far from home
Will you be there to save me
Or will you just hang up the phone?

Will my crazy old lies

And my worn out disguise
Turn to tears in your eyes?
What a fool I have been
There's no way I can win
Unless you take me back in

When the wild life betrays me
And I'm too far from home
Will you be there to save me
Or will you just hang up the phone?
