Hurt and hammer on every nail
Drag your horses and swing that pail
Don't know about the new light rail
Going in downtown
(give me an ale)

Save your glasses for another flight
Can't you stay with me
Just one more night
I promise that we won't fight
Maybe just wrestle awhile

A friend of mine, he drives a hearse
He says all in all it could be worse
Look at the roads we must traverse,
But damn I'm feeling cursed

Look for the caddy on the open range
Let him hammer out the strategies
It's in the swing, not the subtleties
When you score another round

When I think of all the love that's lost
And all the time and at what cost
It makes me want to weep at the loss
But then we must move on

Let me back in, don't turn me away
Let's look at it like a brand new day
The door is open, but just a crack
Keep going forward now, don't look back

How can we set it right
When so much is wrong tonight
How can we take flight after
Our yearnings are gone

Stay with me one more night
Maybe we could just wrestle for awhile
Stay with me one more night
Maybe we could just wrestle for awhile
Stay with me one more night

Maybe we could just wrestle for awhile
Stay with me one more night
Maybe we could just wrestle for awhile
Stay with me one more night
Maybe we could just wrestle for a while
Stay with me one more night
Maybe we could just wrestle for awhile
