I can't hear what you say
When you're shouting in my face

God knows my name
I don't need your word to be saved.

All I need is an open mind that's free
Free of the brainwashing machines

God knows your name
You don't need my word to be saved.

I'm a boy caught on words
So let's not say a word
I don't need a word
To have faith

I won't criticize your way
We've got the same beliefs with different names

God knows our names

We don't need a word to be saved

Don't say a word

I'm a boy caught on words
So let's not be absurd
We don't need a word to be saved
