It was late we couldn't see
The road spun around me
We ran off the side
It's no surprise that we both died.

The news caught the whole scene
My face is bloody and unclean
My parents didn't know I died
I didn't get to say goodbye.

One accident changed everything
This accident destroyed me

Nothing more for me to be
No future in front of me
The wild ride was just a lie
It's no surprise that we both died.

One accident changed everything
This accident destroyed me

One accident changed everything
This accident destroyed me.
