"Fall Of A Hero"

All in all, Can't take no more
My back's against the wall
All the things I had come fallin down
Crushin down the wall
I left a cryin angel undone
For a fistful of hopes
Still remembers my cold love
Every time she moans

My heart is ripped out,
Chained on my boots
Look deep inside mey soul with pain,
Witness the fall of a hero
I lived the fall and I tasted all
Witness the fall of a hero
Don't wanna live anymore

With my barehands, I tried, I won,
The fight against the sand
When the clock turns around
For me give father
For I fucked up again
Tell me where the magic's gone,
Where is the power of mind
Dreams make the future
But the past never lies

My pride is pulled down,
It's a good cause for a laugh
Look deep inside my soul with pain,
Witness the fall of a hero
I lived the fall and I tasted all
Witness the fall of a hero
Don't wanna live anymore
