I couldn't sleep again last night
You're always running through my mind
It's driving me crazy.

My stomach aches when I think of you
If it's over then it's way too soon
Am I to blame.

It's two o'clock
My heart is breaking
We need to talk
Our love is fading.

If I say I love you
Would you say you love me too
I want to know
'Cause I'm still about you.

I couldn't sleep again last night
Just imagined holding you tight
It's driving me crazy.

Don't know how things could get any worse
Should I leave before you leave me first
I've lost my way again.
It's two o'clock
My heart is breaking
We need to talk
Our love is fading.

If I say I love you
Would you say you love me too
I want to know
'Cause I'm still about you.

The tears are stinging in my eyes
You're my only reason to live
But it's all just slipping away.

And it comes as no surprise
Your memory still fills my head
There's so much I need to say.

It's two o'clock
My heart is breaking
We need to talk
Our love is fading.

If I say I love you
Would you say you love me too
I want to know
'Cause I'm still about you.
