"Summer Is Gone"

Summer is gone and I can't be here anymore
Slide into fall and I'll never be too sure
Will you be here waiting when snow hits the ground Summer is gone and I can't stop this world from spinning around

Can I stay here another day, another day
Can I stay here with you
Can I stay here another day, another day
Can I stay here with you

Watching you sleep and I'm counting down the days Hoping that your dreams will remind you of this time and place
You can see that I can't stop this world from spinning around

Can I stay here another day, another day
Can I stay here with you
Can I stay here another day, another day
Can I stay here with you

Can't you see it's a tragedy
Every word I say, every song I sing's about you, about you
