"Welcome The End"

I, hallow the man who knows the reason
I, hold on to life without religion
Poor man to ask questions again
Why play the game, who can explain
Boring the life, Don't you feel the same

Suicide, again and again
Suicide, for me just the same
Suicide, again and again
Suicide, freed from the chains

I, dark clouds above in every season
Poor minds to breed answers again
Still drive the game, You can't explain
Longin for death, I'm not insane

Suicide, again and again
Suicide, for me just the same
Suicide, again and again
Suicide, freed from the chains

All hope is gone, no one to blame
End of the game, why try explain
Welcome the end, Don't fear the pain

Suicide, again and again
Suicide, for me just the same
Suicide, again and again
Suicide, freed from the chains
