Girls with guns
And they're beating on the other ones
Who is the motherfucker?
The one who's making all this fun
And can you approve
They point that gun at you
Just sit back and relax
And you're taken on this ride of chance

All they know
All they know
Time has come
Come the millennium

Girls with guns
And they're having all the fun
Taking all the chances
They love those synthetic glances
And can you approve
She points that gun at you
Lesson number one
And the girls still have the guns

All they know
All they know
Time has come
Come the millennium

Better start to pray
As these days ending
Like a big time bomb
Know what's going on?
And that girl she laughs
And that girl, devil smile
You are in her hold
You are in her hold

Open your eyes
Open your eyes
Open your eyes
Open your eyes
Open your eyes

Open your eyes
Open your eyes
Open your eyes

All they know
All they know
Time has come
Come the millennium

All they know
All they know
Time has come
Come the millennium
