Yo

We dealin with mind expansion

We gettin better as time keeps passin and running faster

I'm from the center of the earth, brewed with crude oil

My energy is explosive, call me a rude boy

Nigga and jiggaboo too

Label my methods of medicine Voodoo

But, it don't matter what you do

I'm pitch black, I'm enriched with original facts

Reachin on back to eternity and that's Where you'll find my roots, along the river Nile

I given a stain of a style and forth came

Man, woman and child

The first on the earth to birth civilization

And it hurts to know the truth when you deficient

And wishin upon a star

You can sunbathe but you'll never be black as we are

It's more than just a skin tone

I'm Melanin Magnetic on the microphone

[Chorus]

Black is black, this is a fact

And Melanin Magnetize elements like that

I'm a nigga, monkey, ape, or eggplant

Call me what you want but understand that

My Melanin Magnetic

My Melanin Magnetic

My Melanin Magnetic

Yo

They say that we got, big dicks, lips, hips, and ass

But tend to dismiss, what they can't grasp

Like, how do we continuously influence the mass?

And how does the black woman possess such grace and class

How does the black man last?

We done been through hell and back (black)

But we still havin a blast

My mic maneuvers make melanin shine bright

I excite the groove and I'm proven right through the night
And through the break of dawn
I absorb photons, protons, neutrons
Ready to take on the whole world, fuck it the whole universe
I traverse with a verse and commune with the earth
Sun don't give me no skin cancer, you nurture Mother earth with light and stead
