(Pep Love)

My energy

Expressed in my text and my concepts

In steps to take it to the next

Let's sip the nectar of the gods

Connect the dots and collect the prize

This radiates and electrifies

My inner sanctum best described

By the ancient tidal wave in tune

With the vital force and by the way

This keeps the planets in orbit

My potential

My vibe and other unseen qualities

You probably feel when worlds collide

The shockwave that vibrates on a higher octave

I indoctrinate what god gave

Oscillates and makes

Ripples in reality

Dips and rips holes in space

Creates galaxies, shakes the earth

And lights up the skies

It makes it worth livin our lives

It is the right stuff

The light plus the darkness

Regardless we harness the energy

In the garden's harvest

The substance we got busted at the seams

Creating dreams reaching out

Touching all things, ideas

And even the emptiness

The subtle ?pre-emptiness? you feel

While I'm attempting this transmission

Ambushing with ambition

Force, mass density and this is

Chorus (x2):

My energy pulse

Livin and driven by my innermost propulsions

Movin in motion along with the universe

Personality, I got charisma

Know what it is?

My energy

Breath, chi, power, impressive strength
And the ability to cold get aggressive
I wield an electromagnetic field
And spill sporadic skill
For the love and the thrill
That it mathematically expresses
In my rap patterns added quickly enough
To bless this situation
I get it electrified
I might start to levitate
When I catch a vibe and
Let ya ride on the back of my dragon
Feel the fire that he breathes and imagine
