You where the one
Now I believe that love is more then what you see
You where the one
Now that your gone, I got no love to carry on

It was last summer
Then was when we fell inlove
You where my lover
Sent to me from heaven above
Your my angel
Even though your just sixteen
You make my heart swell
You don't understand what I mean

One day, you saw my fear
And it freakin' took you away
I wish my love could bring you back
To me today

You where the one
Now I believe that love is more then what you see
You where the one
Now that your gone, I got no love to carry on

Remember lying
On the beach and making love
I kiss and hold you
Till you couldn't get enough
Then you told me
That you never felt this way
And you said hold me
The answer was there and I would say

One day, you saw my fear
And it freakin' took you away
I wish my love could bring you back
To me today

You where the one
Now I believe that love is more then what you see
You where the one
Now that your gone, I got no love to carry on

X5

To carry on, to carry on
