Hurry yeah!
Got somethin' to do that must get done
Hurry yeah!
I'm about to move into the sun

I've been standin' in the shade of a shadow
I feel like drownin' in wonderful thoughts about her
And it's alright

Hurry yeah!
Call the papers spread the world today
Hurry yeah!
Left for good I'm finally on my way

To kick the cryin' has taken forever
But now I'm drownin' in wonderful thoughts about her
And it's alright
I think about her and I'm doin' fine

Hurry yeah!
Got somethin' to do that must get done
Hurry yeah!
I'm about to move and sit in the sun

To kick my cryin' has taken forever
But now I'm drownin' in wonderful thoughts about her
And it's alright
I think about her and I'm doin' fine
