If you ever leave me
If you ever let me down
If you ever tell me
You don't want my love around

I'll be alright
You gave me the best years of my life
And a girl like you is very hard to find
So everything will be alright

People change, I know it
It's a most natural thing
And if you want to show it
You don't owe me anything

I'll be alright
I had the moments of my life
All I need is little time to cry
Then everything will be alright

Take it easy, baby
I wouldn't change a thing (anything about it)
After all, honey
I don't regret anything

I'll be alright
You gave me the finest things in life
And a love like that is very hard to find
So everything will be alright
You gave me the best years of my life
A love like that is very hard to find
So everything will be alright
I'll be alright (yeah)
