CYNIC COSMOS LYRICS

I long to live with some celestial beings to adore in silence blissful friends gliding into constellations of their smiles melting into shining eyes chant away

the cosmos grace
born inside the lotus gold to be at the feet of celestial artists close to the brush of their cosmic strokes churning whispers into melodies of psalm in timeless rhythms, blessed tones

chant away
the cosmos grace
born inside the lotus gold

I can live this revelation with magnified devotion magnified devotion
magnified devotion...

"Divine mother
Free my mind from all obstacles of delusion And lead me safely to thy shores of fulfillment Awaken within me increasing strength, positive thinking, courage, faith And above all fill my heart With thine unconditional love With thine unconditional joy"

I want to be closer to higher beings near to touch those divine companions gathering joyfully from the nether world as I go through the portal's fold
