It's Friday night, we was good from head to toe
We was lookin' so tight
The moment I leave your side
She tries to creep up from behind
I seen her with my own eyes

Why you tryna lie? There's plenty of other guys
Why you gotta fuck with mine?
See hoes, like you get fucked up
After the club it's on and that's wassup

Go ahead and look, yeah, I know he's fine
Try to run up but he's already mine
When he looks at you, he laughs in your face Silly hoes, you should know, you can never take my place

Go ahead and flaunt and drop it like it's hot
No matter what you do, he'll forget me not
Don't try to be sneaky and keep it on the low
You should already know to him you're just another hoe

She said what you mean
I came to the bar to get me a drink
Shit, you was on my man, faster than I can drink Whatcha think, I'm a fool?
Do you think he's gonna leave me to be with you?

You an average chick
Stop ridin' him like he was your shit
'Fore I cock back my hand and bust your lip
It'll be a one way trip, it's your last and this is it

Go ahead and look, yeah, I know he's fine
Try to run up but he's already mine
When he looks at you, he laughs in your face
Silly hoes, you should know, you can never take my
place

Go ahead and flaunt and drop it like it's hot
No matter what you do, he'll forget me not
Don't try to be sneaky and keep it on the low

You should already know, to him you're just another
hoe

All my ladies out there
You know what I'm talkin' about
If you gotta good man, you better look out
'Cause what you got is what they want

Tell them hoes they better push on
They on a mission
Better listen to what I say
'Cause these hoes get around every day

Go ahead and look, yeah, I know he's fine
Try to run up but he's already mine
When he looks at you, he laughs in your face
Silly hoes, you should know, you can never take my
place

Go ahead and flaunt and drop it like it's hot
No matter what you do, he'll forget me not
Don't try to be sneaky and keep it on the low
You should already know, to him you're just another
hoe

Go ahead and look, yeah, I know he's fine
Try to run up but he's already mine
When he looks at you, he laughs in your face
place

Go ahead and flaunt and drop it like it's hot
No matter what you do, he'll forget me not
Don't try to be sneaky and keep it on the low
You should already know, to him you're just another
hoe
