

Perfidious Words "Away"

Feels so different now I found tranquility
I've waited for too long
And watched the years go by
This is the beginning of a tragedy
Were destined to suffer opening old sores

I cannot stay
Walk away
There's no turning back

Take these final thoughts to start it all again
With the dawning of the day
You'll get hold of these lines
Read them carefully don't shed a single tear
The end of stagnation that
Became a dragging pain

I cannot stay
Walk away
There's no turning back
Away
Now away.
