For you it's the hardest part
To fill your life with joy
You don't care how you are
And leave an icy cold

Blow out the candle till there's
No strength to carry on
And take my senses till there's
No strength to carry

All we do is leading
To a life so ordinary
Bleeding is believing
I've seen it all before

I watch the stars collide and
Crash into my life
The only thing I need is Still what you deprive

I feel dejected nothing is
All you've left me with Resurrecting I damn the Day I've met you

All we do is leading
To a life so ordinary
Bleeding is believing
I've seen it all before
It's been a long time you
Came running into my arms

The fires still burning
The world still turning
Nothing can bring me down
The fires still burning
The world still turning
Nothing can bring me down

All we do is leading
To a life so ordinary
Bleeding is believing

Ive seen it all before
All we do is leading
To a life so ordinary
Bleeding is believing
Ive seen it all before
Its been a long time you
Came running into my arms

Running into my arms...
