What happened to my little world
The walls came tumbling in
Don't play it down it's make-believe
Were in a dead end

No secrets to unveil
I give in
I was taught to be serene
I'd take the rain and we will shine
In our souls eternity

You're turning back
Spreading silence
And love is filling me
Your kingdom comes
Easing the pain
I feel security

With every breath I take from now on
The closer gets the man
I long to be who's sharing love
We are here to spoil ourselves

So passionately
Heavenly
We surrender to the sin
And take the rain cause we will shine
In our souls eternity

You're turning back
Spreading silence
And love is filling me
Your kingdom comes
Easing the pain
I feel security

Discomfort rises when I have to deal
(with) the vices mounting up
If I have ever lost my faith in you
I will take the blame

You're turning back

Spreading silence
And love is filling me
Your kingdom comes
Easing the pain
I feel security
