Drag yourself along into the lonely night
You just won the worst fight in your life
No escape from the harrowing reality
Everything you learned became half-truth

No Im not a visionary
Whos saving you from sorrow
Oh Im not a visionary
Who keeps the world from harm

Listen to the craving for security
Even when youre tempted by the lights
Patiently youre waiting for a little love
You just havent got what you deserve

No Im not a visionary
Whos saving you from sorrow
Oh Im not a visionary
Who keeps the world from harm

Silently Im wandering through the pouring rain
The wind is blowing cold since youre not there
Learned my lesson well theres nothing left to say
I wont sleep until youre by my side

No Im not a visionary
Whos saving you from sorrow
Oh Im not a visionary
Who keeps the world from harm
